

November News

Please send your child in with a jacket or sweatshirt every day. The weather can be unpredictable. Also, if your child wears rain boots to school please pack sneakers in their backpack. It can be tricky moving around the classroom with rain boots on.

I hope everyone enjoys Halloween ☺ As November rolls in we will focus on themes such as; Families and Traditions, Forest animals, Veteran's Day and Thanksgiving.

November's color is BROWN.

- We will also be opening our Science center for leaf investigations
- Sensory Table will be filled with beans, scoops, and containers (feed the squirrel/turkey).
- Doll House will be added to block area.
- Dramatic play will change to grocery store.

ABCDEFGHIJKLMN OPQRSTUVWXYZ

We have begun our reading programs (Foundations and Heggerty) this month.

Mystery Readers

Are always a surprise! If you would like to join our class (for 15-20 minutes) and read a story for story-time let me know. Remember it is a secret! You may also record yourself or zoom in live!

November Poem... Leaves, Leaves	Leaves, leaves falling down Falling on the ground. Red and yellow Orange and brown Leaves are falling down.
Ten Fat turkeys.	Ten fat turkeys standing in a row They spread their wings and tails just so They strut to the left They strut to the right They stand outside in the bright sunlight Along comes a farmer looking for some fun Quick! Look at all those turkeys run!!

Sharing activity for November

As mentioned we will be talking about families and are going to be sharing about family traditions. See paper attached for a photo of a family tradition you celebrate, and a short description (i.e., a holiday you celebrate, a trip you may take, a special meal you may eat, etc....). We plan have the children share (by telling us about the tradition/event and answering questions from their peers) them for November. This will be our sharing item for November, so no need to send in a brown item this month.

Remember end of October month we have .... Storybook day for the 2 day is Thursday October 27 and 3 day is on Monday October 31

Storybook Character Day

Please dress up as your favorite storybook character and bring in a book to go along with your character/costume. We will read our favorite stories throughout the school day!
